Office of the Institute Academic Registrar

INVITATION OF APPLICATIONS FOR ADMISSION TO ACCREDITED UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC PROGRAMMES FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2024/2025

The Uganda National Institute for Teacher Education (UNITE) was created on 5th July 2024 by Statutory Instrument No. 53 of 2024 under the existing Universities and Other Tertiary Institutions Act (UOTIA), Cap. 262, as Other Degree Awarding Institution (ODAI). UNITE was established as a multi-campus Institution with Campuses at Kabale, Kaliro, Mubende, Muni and Unyama. UNITE has its headquarters in Kira Municipality (former Shimoni Core PTC). The mandate of UNITE is to coordinate and provide all levels of Teacher Education in the country, ranging from initial teacher training to graduate level training. In addition, it is to provide in-service teacher training and Continuous Professional Development (CPD) programmes.

The Office of the Institute Academic Registrar, therefore, invites applications from eligible candidates for admission to the under-listed accredited undergraduate academic programmes for the Academic Year 2024/2025 to be offered at the mentioned UNITE Campuses.

The information on various programmes, specific admission requirements, fees structure, and application guidelines are accessible at the UNITE website www.unite.ac.ug. The closing date for receiving applications is 7th February, 2025.
